Introduction

Intervening in any conflict situation in the educational context requires multiple skills. One of the first steps is to analyze what is happening, accurately, objectively and empathetically. To be able to do this in a correct manner, students will acquire the knowledge they need to intervene as a perfect figure of trust and mediation.

Learn to identify and analyze conflicts that arise in classrooms and school environments as an initial step to promote conflict resolution, with this high-quality Postgraduate Certificate"

This program offers an integral vision of classroom conflict resolution as well as of successful approach models, and provides tools, experiences and advances in the area that have been approved for this program by a specialized teaching faculty, all of them practising professionals. Each teacher will learn based on professional experience, as well as on evidence-based pedagogical methods, which will make students' learning process more effective and specific.

Mediators possess skills that teachers can cultivate to serve as intermediaries between students and the learning institution; the educator's intention would be to encourage and facilitate this process, so that students can reach their objectives. Mediation in the education system is an emerging skill that can bring improvement in teachers and students, which will result in academic as well as humanistic learning for relationship management in this area.

The perspective from the emerging educational paradigm must be inclusive and based on a biopsychosocial model that contemplates attention to diversity from a comprehensive approach aimed at the entire educational community.

Teachers, at all educational stages, and related professionals in both the educational and socio-health fields need to know the characteristics of these students, know how to identify their needs and have the knowledge and tools to intervene at a personal, socio-familial and, above all, educational level.

This program, designed as a Postgraduate Certificate, responds to the demand for continued specialization among educational agents, and is directed mainly at teachers of kindergarten, primary, secondary and post-compulsory education. With this program, teachers will acquire skills to manage classroom conflict and diversity in the educational context, and to adjust attention to diversity and educational projects in their schools, while it will also enable them to create mediation plans for these centers.

Methodology

This training program offers a different way of learning. Our methodology uses a cyclical learning approach: Relearning.

This teaching system is used, for example, in the most prestigious medical schools in the world, and major publications such as the New England Journal of Medicine have considered it to be one of the most effective.

Discover Relearning, a system that abandons conventional linear learning, to take you through cyclical teaching systems: a way of learning that has proven to be extremely effective, especially in subjects that require memorization"

At TECH Education School we use the Case Method

In a given situation, what should a professional do? Throughout the program students will be presented with multiple simulated cases based on real situations, where they will have to investigate, establish hypotheses and, finally, resolve the situation. There is an abundance of scientific evidence on the effectiveness of the method.

With TECH, educators can experience a learning methodology that is shaking the foundations of traditional universities around the world.

It is a technique that develops critical skills and prepares educators to make decisions, defend their arguments, and contrast opinions.

Did you know that this method was developed in 1912, at Harvard, for law students? The case method consisted of presenting students with real-life, complex situations for them to make decisions and justify their decisions on how to solve them. In 1924, Harvard adopted it as a standard teaching method”

The effectiveness of the method is justified by four fundamental achievements:

1. Educators who follow this method not only grasp concepts, but also develop their mental capacity, by evaluating real situations and applying their knowledge.
2. The learning process is solidly focused on practical skills that allow educators to better integrate the knowledge into daily practice.
3. Ideas and concepts are understood more efficiently, given that the example situations are based on real-life teaching.
4. Students like to feel that the effort they put into their studies is worthwhile. This then translates into a greater interest in learning and more time dedicated to working on the course.

Relearning Methodology

At TECH we enhance the case method with the best 100% online teaching methodology available: Relearning.

Our University is the first in the world to combine case studies with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, combining a minimum of 8 different elements in each lesson, which represent a real revolution with respect to simply studying and analyzing cases.

Educators will learn through real cases and by solving complex situations in simulated learning environments. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

At the forefront of world teaching, the Relearning method has managed to improve the overall satisfaction levels of professionals who complete their studies, with respect to the quality indicators of the best online university (Columbia University).

With this methodology we have trained more than 85,000 educators with unprecedented success in all specialties. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 43.5 years.

*Relearning will allow you to learn with less effort and better performance, involving you more in your specialization, developing a critical mindset, defending arguments, and contrasting opinions:
a direct equation to success.*

In our program, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (learn, unlearn, forget, and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

This program offers the best educational material, prepared with professionals in mind:
