Certify yourself in Spanish Level A2 thanks to this course endorsed by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages"

Introduction

Spanish is a simple language to learn, which allows a better understanding of other Romance languages. As a result, many people are incorporating it as a second or third language. In addition, international companies have noticed the relevance and power of the Hispanic market, which has increased the search for professionals with language skills in Spanish. Similarly, a large number of foreign students opt for universities in countries such as Mexico, Spain or Chile to continue their studies, requiring an understanding of the language or language certification.

For these reasons, this Language Course will help the student prepare for the A2 Spanish certification. Thus, they will be able to participate immersively in any conversation and understand simple statements.

You will work on your skills with more than 200 different activities, with the support of native teachers.

A 100% online Language Course, which will help you study and prepare you to obtain the A2 certification of Spanish under the CEFR.

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society. Nowadays, you must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes your proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards diplomas that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH Technological University we offer you the only intensive preparation course to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.
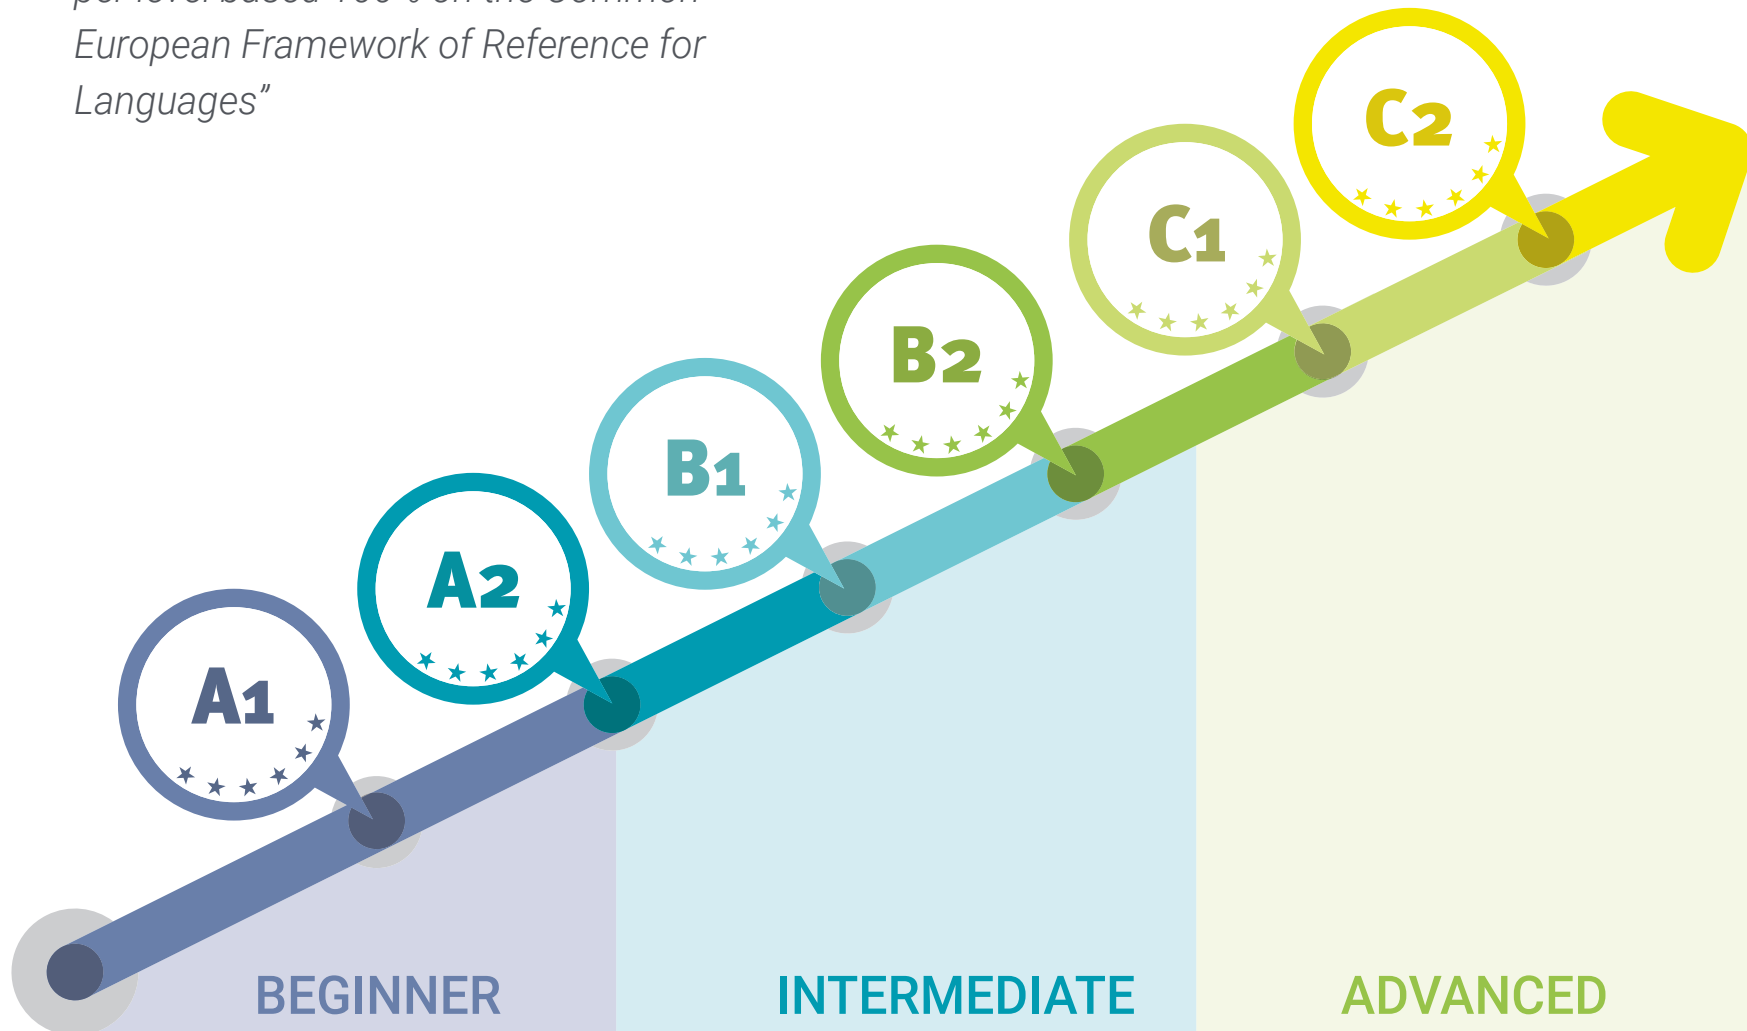

Learn Spanish and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate gives you a diploma for life.

We work with the most comprehensive and complete syllabus, with 45 units per level based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages"

03
What Is Level A2?

One of the purposes of the CEFR is to help users describe the levels of language proficiency required by existing examinations and assessment programs in order to facilitate comparisons between different certification systems. Therefore, these levels are a universal scale used to unify and clarify the different language level evaluation systems.

In TECH's A2 Level Language Course, we thoroughly prepare you to obtain your Spanish A2 language certificate"

What are the A2 Level Skills?

Level A2 is part of the basic User Level, which is divided into two sublevels: First and Second Basic User Level (A1 and A2).

Most of the descriptors that are used in social functions are found at this level, such as, for example:

01 Understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of experience that are particularly relevant to them (basic information about themselves and their family, shopping, places of interest, occupations, etc.)

"Don't miss the opportunity to certify your level of Spanish and enroll in this high level degree"

02 Communicate in simple, everyday tasks that require only simple and direct exchanges of information on familiar or routine matters

03 Describe in simple terms aspects of their background and environment, as well as issues related to their immediate needs

Here you will also find descriptors on how to function in social life: being able to carry out simple transactions in stores, post offices or banks; knowing how to get simple travel information; using public transport (buses, trains and cabs); asking for basic information, asking and explaining how to get to a place and buys tickets; ordering and providing everyday goods and services.

TECH helps you to get your qualification with this intensive, 100% CEFR training"

A2 level Self-Assessment Chart

What will I be able to do after completing the course?

Listening Comprehension

- Understand sentences and the most common vocabulary on topics of personal interest (very basic personal and family information, shopping, place of residence, employment)
- Capture the main idea of short, clear and simple messages and notices

Reading Comprehension

- Read very short and simple texts
- Finding specific and predictable information in simple, everyday written material, such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus, and schedules, and understanding short, simple personal letters

Speaking

Oral Interaction

- Communicate simple and routine tasks that require a simple and direct exchange of information about daily activities and issues
- Very brief social exchanges, but usually unable to understand enough to carry on the conversation on their own

Oral Expression

- Use a series of expressions and phrases to describe in simple terms your family and other people, your living conditions, your educational background, and your current or most recent job

Writing

Written Expression

- Write short, simple notes and messages related to their immediate needs
- Write very simple personal letters, e.g., thanking someone for something.

Check your level. Assess yourself. More than 400 multiple-choice questions for continuous evaluation.

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level A2
(According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- Use structures composed of basic sentences with expressions, groups of a few words and memorized formulas, in order to communicate limited information in simple, everyday situations.

Correction

- Use some simple structures correctly, although basic systematic mistakes are still made.

Fluency

- Make oneself understood with very brief expressions, although pauses, initial doubts and rephrasing very evident.

Interaction

- Answer questions and respond to simple statements
- Indicate when they understand a conversation, but barely understand enough to carry on a conversation on their own accord

Coherence

- Link groups of words with simple connectors such as "and", "but" and "because".

Download and practice vocabulary: more than 120 pages of lexical cards and glossaries.

Our Methodology

The TECH course is an intensive preparation program to obtain the A2 Spanish certificate, based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, we use a method in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the CEFR, thoroughly preparing them to pass the test.

In no other course will you find pre-test knowledge activation questions, lesson tests, grammar tests, a final test and specific practice of CEFR skills in each unit"

The TECH Technological University method

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's A2 English Language Course offers you a revolutionary method to comprehensively prepare for the level certification test. Our goal is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and, thus, guarantee your success in passing the level exam. To do so, we emulate the test through constant simulations throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning...

TECH offers you the highest quality and quantity in the academic landscape, with hundreds of exercises and resources for you to keep improving your level step by step.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Relearning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed, in 2015 , to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives…,) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

08 Competencies testing (retesting)

In TECH's A2 Spanish Language Course, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (we learn–unlearn (forget) and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

With this methodology we have trained more than 35,000 university graduates with unprecedented success, in fields as diverse as Biochemistry, Genetics, Surgery, International Law, Management Skills or Financial Markets and Instruments. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 42 years.

...with a personalized and expert-led training itinerary...

In order to facilitate tutor-student contact as much as possible, students will have a wide range of communication possibilities, both in real time and delayed (internal messaging, telephone answering service, discussion forums on, e-mail contact with the technical secretary, chat and video conference).

"Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)."

...and all this with the best learning materials at the forefront of technology and pedagogy...

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called Neurocognitive Context-Dependent Learning, the different elements of our intensive Spanish A2 Language Course are connected with the context in which the participant will take their certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

The Preparation Language Course for Spanish A2 Level is designed to provide the student with the necessary skills to pass the exam at the corresponding level. For this, it will have a series of practical exercises, based on repetition training. In addition, you will have at your disposal the best native teachers in this field, with personalized attention and videos summarizing each of the topics covered.

" Practice and improve your skills thanks to more than 500 exercises designed for this Language Course"

General Objectives

01 Use the language learned as a means of communication and personal expression, both in class and in everyday situations, whether face-to-face or virtual

02 Understand, interact and express themselves simply, but appropriately and effectively in these situations, both orally and in writing

03 Approach the most relevant social aspects of everyday life situations and use the most usual forms of social relations and treatment

04 Use the linguistic resources necessary to get by in these situations

05 Strengthen the learner's initial motivation, looking for opportunities to use the new language, including those offered by the new information and communication technologies

06 Acquire tools that enable the student to assess and improve their own learning and use of the language

Specific Objectives

Oral Comprehension

- Understand enough to be able to deal with specific needs as long as the speech is articulated clearly and at a slow pace
- Understand sentences and expressions related to areas of immediate priority (e.g., very basic personal and family information, shopping, place of residence, employment) provided speech is articulated clearly and slowly
- Generally identifies the topic being discussed, provided it is conducted slowly and clearly
- Capture the main idea of short, clear and simple messages and statements
- Understand simple instructions on how to get from one place to another, both on foot and by public transportation
- Understand and extract essential information from short recorded passages dealing with everyday, predictable matters and spoken slowly and clearly

Written Expression

- Write a series of simple phrases and sentences linked with simple connectors such as "and", "but" and "because"
- Write a series of simple phrases and sentences about their family, their living conditions, their studies, their present job or the last one they had. Write short, simple imaginary biographies and simple poems about people

+ Understand short, simple texts on everyday matters if they contain very frequent, everyday or work-related vocabulary.

+ Understand short and simple texts containing very frequent vocabulary, including a good part of internationally shared vocabulary terms.

+ Understand basic types of commonly used letters and faxes (forms, orders, confirmation letters, etc.) on everyday topics.

+ Understand short and simple personal letters.

+ Find specific and predictable information in everyday written material, such as advertisements, prospectuses, restaurant menus or menus, listings, and schedules.

+ Locate specific information in listings and isolate the required information (e.g., knows how to use the "Yellow Pages" to search for a service or a business).

+ Understand signs and signals found in public places, such as streets, restaurants, train stations, and workplaces, e.g., directions to a location, instructions and hazard warnings.

+ Identify specific information in simple written material, such as letters, catalogs and short newspaper articles describing specific events.

+ Understand rules that are expressed at a simple level of language.

+ Understand simple instructions for frequently used appliances, such as a public telephone.

+ Identify the main idea of television news reporting events, accidents, etc., when there is visual support to complement the discourse.

+ Know when TV news has changed topics and get an idea of the main content.

Oral Expression

+ Give a simple description or presentation of people, living or working conditions, daily activities, likes and dislikes in a short list of simple phrases and sentences.

+ Tell stories or describe something through a simple relationship of elements. Describe everyday aspects of their environment; for example, people, places, a work or study experience. Give brief and basic descriptions of events and activities. Describe plans and appointments, customs, usual or past activities and personal experiences.

+ Use simple, descriptive language to make brief statements about objects and possessions and to make comparisons. Explain what they like and dislike about something.

+ Deliver rehearsed, very brief statements of predictable, learned content that are intelligible to listeners who are willing to concentrate

+ Deliver brief, rehearsed presentations on topics that are of importance in everyday life and briefly offer reasons and explanations for expressing certain opinions, plans, and actions

+ Answer a limited number of questions with immediate and simple answers

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- Learn the sociocultural aspects and social conventions that have the greatest impact on daily life, as well as those related to one's own field, in order to translate them into behavior and communication

- Recognize and use the most common forms of greeting, courtesy, and treatment. Use, in general, a standard language register of basic but careful formality and informality. Recognize some very frequent colloquial expressions, as well as elementary cultural references related to everyday life

- Understand gestures, behaviors and values that are different from one's own that underlie the most obvious, everyday socio-cultural aspects

Linguistic Competence

- Achieve a sufficient repertoire of linguistic exponents for the functions of the level and use correctly the "formulas" and structures learned

- In language construction, achieving limited control, with the possible systematic errors of the level

- Pronounce clearly and understandably, even if a foreign accent is evident

- Write with correct spelling the common language worked on

> To consolidate all these skills, you will have access to more than 400 lexical, vocabulary and sociocultural activities"

Did you know?

Communicative competence is not merely limited to the knowledge and ability to use the linguistic code, but has other broader dimensions, which place it in direct relation with other competences such as information processing and digital competence, learning to learn, social and civic competence, or cultural and artistic competence.

This implies a cultural immersion that is only possible to recreate in the online format through simulated scenarios, storytelling, videos and real situations.

Only TECH offers videos with the 180 specific situations required to master the CEFR A2.

Course Structure and Content

The syllabus of this Language Course is designed for students to develop their Spanish language skills. Therefore, it follows a simple but effective approach: constant practice and innovative content. In this way, you will be able to communicate in this language, making personal presentations, requesting an item at the supermarket or identifying the main idea in the television news.

The Professional Benefits of Spanish

Spanish is the second most widely spoken native language in the world, behind Mandarin Chinese and ahead of English and Hindi/Urdu. Recent forecasts show that English, Spanish and Chinese are inevitably the three languages of international communication for the 21st century.

It is spoken in Spain, the Caribbean Islands (Cuba and Puerto Rico), the Dominican Republic, North America (Mexico), Central America (Guatemala, Belize, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama) and South America (Colombia, Venezuela, Uruguay, Paraguay, Argentina, Chile, Bolivia, Peru and Ecuador). Spanish is also the second most widely spoken language in the United States.

The Spanish-speaking population represents one of the fastest growing segments in the world, especially in the United States. The Spanish-speaking segment constitutes a huge community that shares products, services and culture, offering businesses and institutions a truly unique growth opportunity.

In addition, studying Spanish opens many doors at the professional level. Many countries have Spanish as an official language, so there are many jobs in which this can be a fundamental factor.

The Spanish powerhouse is in its infancy as to what will happen in the future. The Spanish will make Simón Bolívar's impossible dream of uniting all America a reality"

Eduardo Lago, director of the Cervantes Institute in New York

Assessment and Certification

The main evaluation objective of TECH'S assessment is that students consolidate what they have learned and are aware of their progress. That is why, after completing each block, the student is shown a results report that visually indicates the skills that they should reinforce in the online classes.

" TECH'S A2 Language Course is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate"

Spanish A2 training course evaluation tests

The assimilation of the contents is constantly and progressively evaluated. To do so, the student must pass an automatically corrected evaluation test at the end of each module and a final test that covers all the contents of the level.

Its main objective is for the student to consolidate what they have learned and to be aware of their progress, for this reason, after the evaluation test is completed, the student is shown a report of the results.

Only TECH Technological University will award students, upon successful completion of the course, a university certificate"

Training course evaluation criteria

- Communicative effectiveness: comprehensibility, fulfillment of expected functions, accuracy, sociolinguistic appropriateness.

- Interactive and speaking skills: responsiveness and cooperation, coherence of ideas, organization, relevant and sufficient development.

- Use of language: linguistic resources, formal elements of cohesion and fluency.

- Formal correction: grammar, discourse cohesion, vocabulary and pronunciation.

If you pass our course, you will obtain an A2 Spanish language qualification from TECH.

The certificate, which indicates successful completion of the course, will state the language studied and the level passed, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The certificate issued by TECH Technological University only provides "pass" or "fail" as grading options, and does not express a numerical grade. Before receiving the certificate, you will be emailed a form to verify your data.

The CEFR A2 Spanish Language Course is an intensive course lasting a maximum of 4 months.

Certification

At the end of the course the student will receive a certificate of recognition that confirms that they are prepared to obtain official certification for this level.
