Welcome

The German contribution to universal knowledge and culture is undeniable, with outstanding figures such as Bach and Beethoven in music or Einstein and Kepler in science. Many of the greatest works in philosophy, social sciences and literature have been written in German, so an advanced knowledge of the language also gives access to an unparalleled cultural scope. This TECH University Course teaches, precisely, an advanced intermediate level of German, corresponding to B2 within the CEFR. Thanks to an exhaustive pedagogical methodology, the student will obtain all the necessary linguistic competences to pass the German B2 exam without obstacles.

Presentation video

Thanks to this University Course you will achieve certification in German B2 level, with a 100% online method, comfortable and adapted to you"

Introduction

German is a language that is always on the rise, given the current economic, scientific and cultural importance of Europe's greatest power. Therefore, it is not surprising that every day more and more people are eager to learn it. Therefore, companies in Germany, Austria, Belgium and Luxembourg value positively that their foreign applicants have a B2 level in this language. For this reason, this University Course has been designed to help students improve and reinforce their language skills in order to pass the corresponding level exam, endorsed by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. This will be possible thanks to the methodology developed by TECH, relearning, which guarantees maximum learning efficiency.

Thanks to a series of practical exercises and didactic videos, you will improve your German grammar and pronunciation.

In only four months, you will be able to prepare yourself exhaustively to pass the B2 German exam.

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society. Nowadays, students must have an official certificate that accredits and recognizes their proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

tech 10 | Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certification?

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards diplomas that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH, we offer you the only intensive Language Course to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

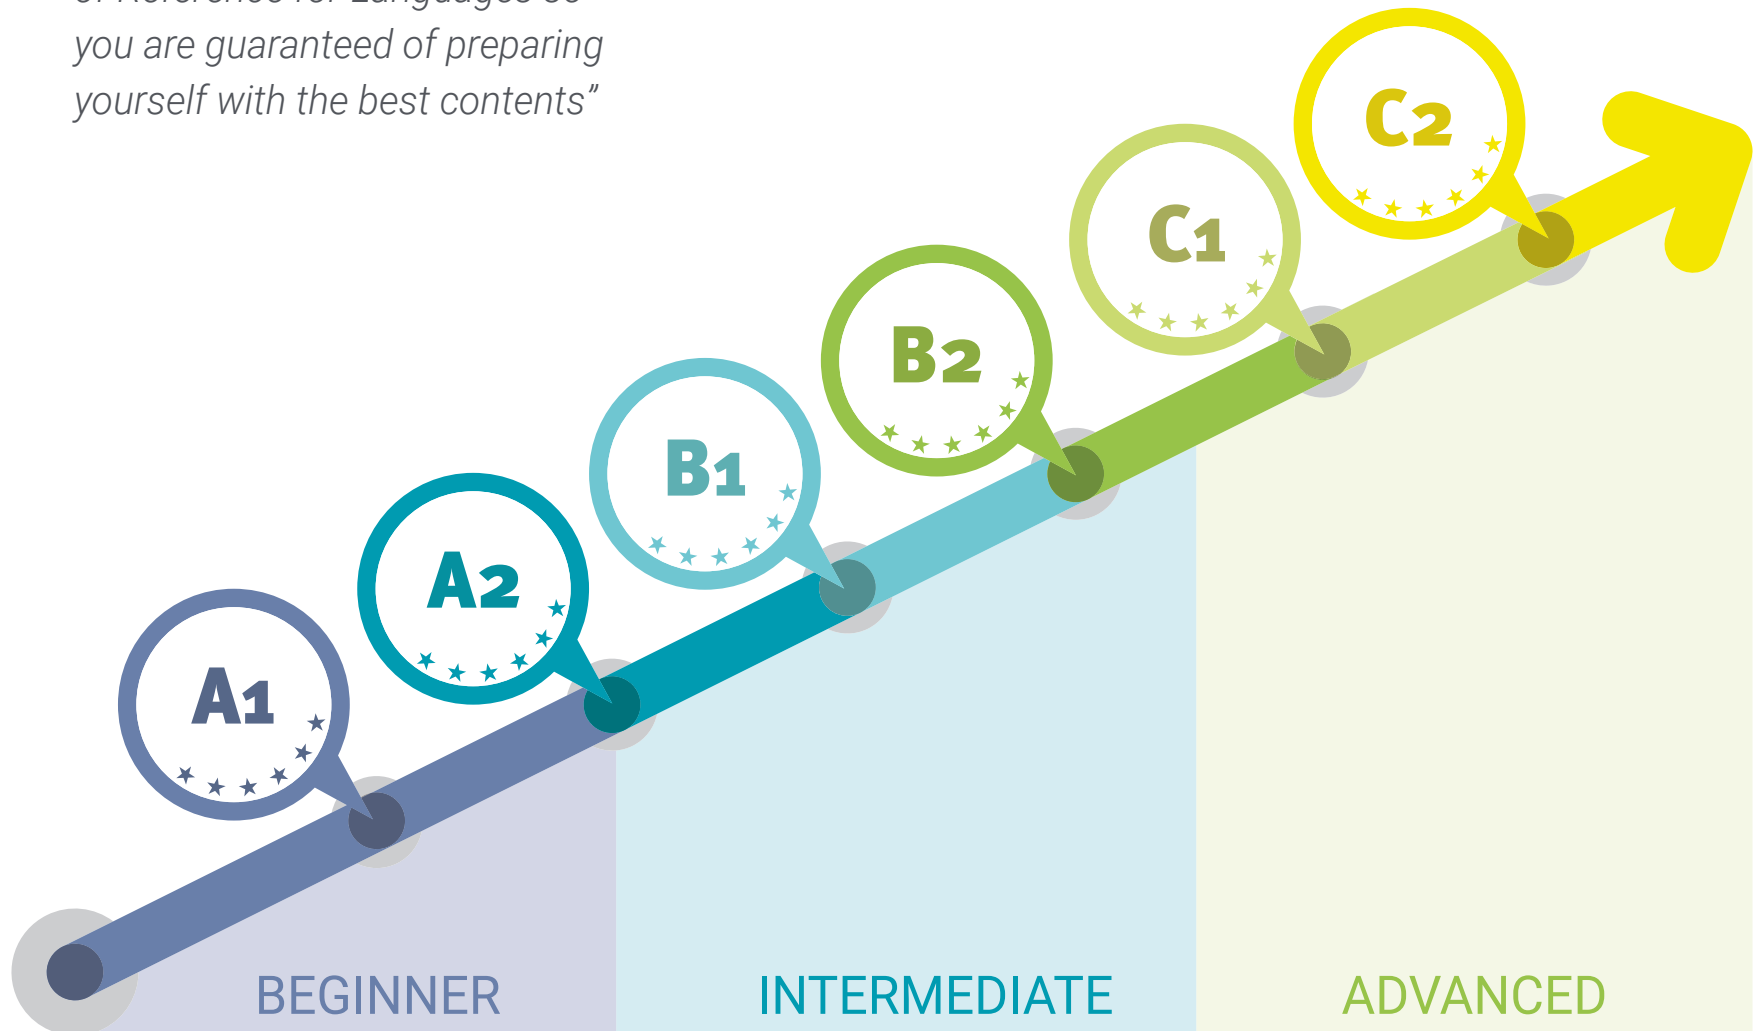

Learn German and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate gives you a diploma for life.

All of the topics are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages so you are guaranteed of preparing yourself with the best contents”

03

What Is Level B2?

One of the purposes of the CEFR is to help users describe the levels of language proficiency required by existing examinations and assessment programs in order to facilitate comparisons between different certification systems. Therefore, these levels are a universal scale used to unify and clarify the different language level evaluation systems.

A person with long dark hair, wearing a colorful plaid shirt, is holding a white circular sign with the letters 'B2' in red. The sign is positioned in the lower-left quadrant of the image. In the background, there are several thin, light blue lines that curve across the top of the page, creating a sense of motion or a digital wave.

This TECH B2 Level Language Course will thoroughly prepare you to obtain your B2 German language certificate”

What are the B2 Level Skills?

01

It is the ability to understand the main ideas in complex texts which deal with both concrete and abstract topics, even if they are of a technical nature, as long as they are within their field of expertise

02

You can interact with native speakers with a sufficient degree of fluency and naturalness, so that communication is effortless for the interlocutors

With the B2 level of German you will achieve a good command of the language, which will allow you to perform in a great number of situations with total confidence”

03

You can produce clear and detailed texts on a range of diverse topics, as well as defend your point of view on general topics, indicating the pros and cons or different options

Listening Comprehension <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ Understand long speeches and lectures, and even follow complex arguments as long as the topic is relatively familiar♦ Understand nearly all the news bulletins on the television and on current affairs programs♦ Understand most films in which the language is spoken at a standard language level Reading Comprehension <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ Read articles and reports related to modern problems in which the authors express specific viewpoints♦ Understand contemporary literary prose	Oral Interaction <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ Participate in a conversation with fluency and spontaneity, enabling normal communication with native speakers♦ Take an active role in debates based on daily situations, explaining and defending points of view Oral Expression <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ Present clear and detailed descriptions of a wide range of topics related to my speciality♦ Explain my point of view on a topic, mentioning the advantages and disadvantages of different options	Written Expression <ul style="list-style-type: none">♦ Write clear and detailed texts on a wide range of topics related to their interests♦ Write essays or reports conveying information or proposing reasons that support or refute a particular point of view♦ Write letters that emphasize the importance given to certain facts and experiences TECH helps you to get your qualification with intensive, 100% CEFR training"

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B2

(According to the Common Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ♦ Has a sufficiently broad level of language to be able to give clear descriptions and express points of view on general topics without evidencing word search, and knows how to use complex sentences to do this

Correction

- ♦ Demonstrates relatively high grammatical accuracy
- ♦ Does not make mistakes that cause misunderstanding and be able to correct almost all mistakes made

Fluency

- ♦ Be capable of producing fragments of a speech with a fairly uniform rhythm; although there could be pauses while thinking of certain structures or expressions
- ♦ Make very few long pauses while speaking

Interaction

- ♦ Start a conversation, take your turn to speak at the appropriate moment and finish a conversation when necessary, although it may not always be done with elegance
- ♦ Participate in debates on day to day topics, demonstrating understanding, inviting others to participate, etc.

Coherence

- ♦ Use a limited number of cohesion mechanisms to turn sentences into a clear and coherent speech, although there may be some "nervousness" if the speech is long

Check your level. Assess yourself. More than 500 multiple-choice questions for continuous evaluation.

Our Methodology

This TECH Language Course is an intensive program designed to prepare students to obtain the B2 German certificate based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, we use a method in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the CEFR, thoroughly preparing them to pass the test.

In no other course will you find pre-test knowledge activation questions, lesson tests, grammar tests, a final test and specific practice of CEFR skills in each unit"

The TECH Method

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

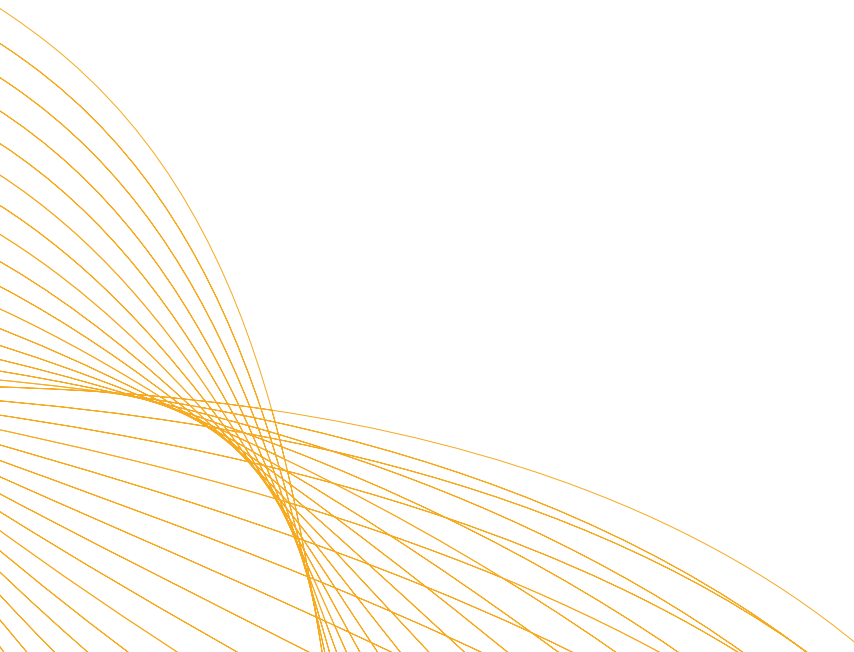

This TECH B2 German Language Course offers you a revolutionary method to comprehensively prepare for the level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the test official using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

TECH offers you the highest quality and quantity in the academic landscape, with hundreds of exercises and resources for you to keep improving your level step by step.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Relearning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed, in 2015, to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives, etc.) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

Relearning Methodology

In this TECH Intensive B2 German Language Course, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (we learn, unlearn, forget and relearn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

With this methodology we have trained more than 35,000 university graduates with unprecedented success, in fields as diverse as Biochemistry, Genetics, Surgery, International Law, Management Skills or Financial Markets and Instruments. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 42 years.

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, receive answers to your questions or get advice on how to study.

“ Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called Neurocognitive - context dependent learning, the different elements of our intensive German B2 level preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take the official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

Course Objectives

This University Course has the main objective of helping the student to achieve the B2 German certification. For this purpose, TECH has designed a complete and up-to-date program that meets all the language skills required by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. As a result, through constant repetition, you will be able to obtain your certificate valid in any German-speaking country.

Practice the speaking skills and abilities required by the B2 CEFR: more than 400 different practice exercises”

General Objectives

01

Understand, interact and express yourself in a extensive range of situations, both orally and written, with good control of linguistic resources and with a degree of precision and ease that allows for natural communication with native speakers

02

Acquire deeper knowledge of sociocultural aspects related to this situations and alter your register, attitudes and gestures appropriately in each situation

03

Internalize new linguistic resources through functional and formal practice and to reinforce the use of those already known; to reflect on mistakes in order to be able to correct yourself

04

Become aware of the communication and learning strategies that help you the most, so that you can use them intentionally

05

Develop autonomy in the planning, carrying out, evaluation and improvement of your own learning

Specific Objectives

Listening

- Understand the main ideas of a linguistically complex speech, dealing with both concrete and abstract topics delivered at a standard language level, including technical discussions within their field of expertise
- Understand long speeches and complex lines of reasoning as long as the subject matter is reasonably familiar and the development of the speech is facilitated by explicit markers
- Understand any type of speech, both face-to-face conversations and broadcast speeches, on topics, usual or not, of personal, social, academic or professional life. Only excessive background noise, inadequate structuring of speech or idiomatic use of language affect their ability to understand
- Pick up with some effort much of what is being said around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in a discussion with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- Follow lively conversations between native speakers
- Understand the main ideas of linguistically complex lectures, talks and reports, and other forms of academic and professional presentation
- Understand statements and messages on concrete and abstract topics, in standard language and at a normal pace
- Understand most radio documentaries and other recorded or rebroadcast material spoken in standard language, and identify the speaker's mood and tone
- Understand recordings in standard language that may be encountered in social, professional or academic life, and identify the speaker's points of view and attitudes, as well as the content of the information

Reading Comprehension

- Read with a high level of independence, adapting reading style and speed to different texts and purposes and use appropriate reference sources selectively. Have a large active reading vocabulary, but may have some difficulty with infrequent idioms
- Read information related to their field of expertise and easily grasp the essential meaning
- Quickly search through long and complex texts to locate relevant details. Quickly identify the content and significance of news items, articles and reports on a wide range of professional topics and decide whether further analysis is appropriate
- Understand articles and reports related to current problems in which the authors express specific viewpoints
- Obtain information, ideas and opinions from highly specialized sources within their field of interest. Understand specialized articles that are not in their field of expertise as long as they can use a dictionary from time to time to confirm their interpretation of the terminology
- Understand lengthy and complex instructions that are within their expertise, including details about conditions and warnings as long as they can re-read difficult sections
- Understand most television news and current affairs programs. Understand documentaries, live interviews, debates, plays and most standard-language films

Written Expression

- Express news and points of view effectively when writing and establish a relationship with other people's points of view
- Write letters that convey emotion and highlight the personal significance of events and experiences; comment on the news and views of the person they are writing to

Oral Expression

- Participate in conversations with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that enables regular interaction with native speakers without strain for either party. Emphasize the personal importance of certain facts and experiences, express and defend points of view with clarity, providing adequate explanations and arguments
- Speak fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, professional or leisure topics, clearly marking the relationship between ideas. Communicates spontaneously and has good grammatical control without showing many signs of having to restrict what he/she says and adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances
- Understand in detail what is said in standard language, even in an environment with background noise
- Approach extensive conversations on most general topics, even in a noisy environment, in a clearly participatory manner
- Have conversations with native speakers without unintentionally amusing or annoying them, and without demanding different behavior from them than they would have with a native speaker
- Convey a certain emotion and highlight the personal importance of facts and experiences
- Follow the rhythm of lively discussions between native speakers. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines of argument convincingly and respond to them
- Take an active part in informal discussions that occur in everyday situations by making comments, clearly expressing their points of view, evaluating alternative proposals, making hypotheses and responding to them
- With some effort, pick up much of what is said in discussions going on around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in discussions with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- Express and uphold their opinions in discussions by providing appropriate explanations, arguments, and comments
- Keep up with heated discussions and accurately identify the arguments of different points of view. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines and respond to them with conviction
- Understand, with complete certainty, detailed instructions. Contribute to the progress of the work by inviting others to participate, speak up, etc.
- Outline an issue or problem clearly, speculating on the causes or consequences and comparing the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches
- Negotiate the resolution of conflicts, such as claiming an unfair traffic fine, claiming financial responsibility for damages caused in an apartment or for culpability in an accident
- Express their opinions in the event of damages, using persuasive language to claim compensation, and clearly establish the limits of any concession they are willing to make
- Explain a problem that has arisen and make it clear that the service provider or customer must make concessions
- Understand and exchange complex information and advice on all matters related to their profession. Communicates detailed information with complete certainty

- Make clear and detailed descriptions of how to carry out a procedure. Summarizes and communicates information and arguments from a variety of sources
- Conduct effective and fluent interviews, even spontaneously departing from prepared questions, following the thread and giving interesting answers
- Take the initiative in an interview, and expand and develop their ideas, either with little help or getting it if needed from the interviewer

In TECH's CEFR B2 Language Course, students will find more than 300 pronunciation and phonetic activities”

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- Broaden and diversify your knowledge of sociocultural aspects of communities where they speak the language, acquiring a natural and confident manner of speaking, which doesn't attract attention nor leads to special treatment, different to that given to native speakers. Furthermore, gain knowledge of how to adjust your behavior, reactions, attitude, message and wording to any changes in situation, style and emphasis
- Identify the most important aspects of a variety of common formal and informal oral and written registers, and appropriately use the expressions, pronunciation and intonation of the most common registers that you are most in contact with
- Perceive the differentiating characteristics of the Italian language pattern in relation to other widespread or nearby patterns

Linguistic Competence

- Manage a wide and varied repertoire of linguistic resources, including complex syntax and textual grammar, in order to approach, with naturalness, precision, clarity and cohesion, texts on a wide range of situations and topics, almost without showing that he/she has to limit what he/she wants to say
- Flexibly adapt to changes in direction, register and emphasis, although hesitations and circumlocutions can still occur
- Efficiently use a variety of connectors and discourse markers to clearly show the link between different ideas and successfully make the speech cohesive in a flexible and efficient way
- Possess good command of linguistic resources with very few mistakes. When using complex structures, especially in discourse development, and even more so in oral communication or in less common situations, there are sometimes cohesion or inappropriate register mistakes, as well as sporadic slips or some "resistant" errors in less commonly controlled situations. In these cases the student will be capable of self-correcting

To consolidate all these skills, you will have more than 500 lexical, vocabulary and sociocultural activities to help you increase your level of German"

Did you know?

Communicative competence is not merely limited to the knowledge and ability to use the linguistic code, but has other broader dimensions, which place it in direct relation with other competences such as information processing and digital competence, learning to learn, social and civic competence, or cultural and artistic competence.

This implies a cultural immersion that is only possible to recreate in the online format through simulated scenarios, storytelling, videos and real situations.

Only TECH offers videos with the 180 specific situations required to master the CEFR B2.

Course Structure and Content

The syllabus of this University Course has been designed to help students become extremely fluent in German, using it in different areas of their professional and personal lives. Therefore, upon graduating from the program, they will be able to express their feelings, express an opinion on climate problems or relate any event in their daily lives. Likewise, they will be in a position to take and pass the level exams contemplated in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Where, When and How is it Taught?

This course takes place over 4 months and is divided into 15 content modules. You can do it completely online, even attending our sessions and tutorials.

Thanks to the various practical exercises in this University Course, you will be able to express yourself and understand German at a near-native level"

Learning German has made it easier for me to access the most current research in the field of medicine, published in the German language. As a final year student, this is essential to elaborate the frame of reference for my degree work, and thanks to TECH's online methodology I have been able to perfectly balance my studies with the University Preparatory Courses.

Alejandro Sánchez

Medical student from Mexico

When I was offered a position as a technology infrastructure manager in a German company I decided to improve my level in order to communicate better with my future colleagues. That's why, in less than 2 years, I have managed to reach Level B2 thanks to the constant practice that this University Course has provided me with.

The Professional Benefits of German

German is the ninth most spoken language in the world. It is spoken in countries such as: Switzerland, Austria, Luxembourg and Belgium. And also in other parts of the world in small communities.

There is no doubt that the main reason to learn German is for work. Austria has the lowest unemployment rate of the Eurozone countries; Switzerland is one of the most affluent countries and offers excellent working conditions; the engine of Europe, Germany, offers great employment opportunities to anyone who is willing to work. However, a good level of German is a prerequisite for working in these countries. Many have tried their luck and emigrated from their home countries in search of work, but doing it without knowing German is not particularly easy.

Learning German may be just what you need to develop your career. Knowing German will also make it easier to create or maintain working relationships with German-speaking associates in your country. It will undoubtedly help to strengthen relationships and close business deals. It is also worth bearing in mind that German is the native language of one of the world's major exporting countries, and having a good command of this language allows you to perform better in business and instill greater confidence in working relationships.

Additionally, German is the second most important language for the sciences and Germany is the third most important country for its contribution to research and development. Germany awards a large number of research grants to foreign scientists and almost 20% of the world's books are written in German.

Assessment and Certification

The main evaluation objective of TECH'S assessment is that students consolidate what they have learned and are aware of their progress. That is why, after completing each block, the student is shown a results report that visually indicates the skills that they should reinforce in the online classes.

TECH's intensive B2 Language Course is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate"

German B2 training course evaluation tests

The assimilation of the contents is constantly and progressively evaluated. To do so, the student must pass an automatically corrected evaluation test at the end of each module and a final test that covers all the contents of the level.

Its main objective is for the student to consolidate what they have learned and to be aware of their progress, for this reason, after the evaluation test is completed, the student is shown a report of the results.

Only TECH will award students, upon successful completion of the course, a university certificate"

Training course evaluation criteria

- Communicative effectiveness: comprehensibility, fulfillment of expected functions, accuracy, sociolinguistic appropriateness
- Interactive and speaking skills: responsiveness and cooperation, coherence of ideas, organization, relevant and sufficient development
- Use of language: linguistic resources, formal elements of cohesion and fluency
- Formal correction: grammar, discourse cohesion, vocabulary and pronunciation
- Discursive capacity: coherence of ideas, organization and development
- Use of language: linguistic expressions, formal resources of cohesion and flexibility
- Formal correction: grammar, discourse cohesion, vocabulary and spelling

If you pass our course, you will obtain a certificate of the German Course B2 Level, accredited with 300 hours and issued by TECH.

The certificate, which indicates successful completion of the course, will state the language studied and the level passed, according to the Common European Framework of Reference from Languages (CEFR).

The certificate issued by TECH only provides "pass" or "fail" as grading options, and does not express a numerical grade. Before receiving the certificate, you will be emailed a form to verify your data.

The CEFR B2 German Language Course is an intensive program lasting a maximum of 4 months.

Certification

At the end of the course the student will receive a certificate of recognition that confirms that they are prepared to obtain official certification for this level.
