01 Welcome

Italian is one of the most important languages in the European Union. It is a language of great diplomatic importance, due to the enormous weight of this country in the continent, and has an enormous use in the industrial field, since one of the great business hubs of Europe is located in Italy. It is also a language spoken in countries such as Switzerland and Slovenia, and has a presence in North Africa as a method of business communication.

For that reason, this university exam is perfect for all those who wish to explore the potential of Italy in any of its fields, whether in search of great professional, academic or cultural opportunities, since we must not forget the great historical and artistic influence of this country in Europe and around the world. “

Level C2 is the highest level of recognition in the CEFR, so accrediting it will propel you to achieve all your personal and professional goals"

Introduction

Among the most important languages in Europe, Italian stands out for its mix of political, business and cultural influence. It is a language that is present in more countries outside Italy, such as San Marino and Vatican City, and is an official language in Switzerland and Slovenia, and enjoys official protection in others, such as Croatia. Italy is also one of the cradles of Western culture, and its cities are historical and artistic monuments.

This university accreditation exam of Level C2 allows the student to obtain a diploma that certifies his/her absolute command of this language, which will give him/her immediate access to all the personal and professional opportunities he/she is looking for, whether in a large company in the country, in the field of European diplomacy or academically, since he/she will be able to get a spot in the best universities in the country.

Why Is it Important to Obtain Level C2 Certification?

In practical terms, C2 opens the doors to companies, private and public institutions, universities and other study centers, job selection processes, scholarships, exchange programs, competitive examinations and job vacancies related to Italy and the country's environment. The highest level of Italian is required in the most prestigious companies and institutions, since this university exam will give you the opportunity to achieve your dreams.

In cultural terms, mastering Italian at this level of competence means being able to understand the identity of the Italian people, soak up their history and art, and to speak, write and understand even the smallest nuances of the language of Petrarch, Dante and Umberto Eco.

Level C2 Italian is what the CEFR recognizes as the closest level to that of a native speaker. It enables reading and writing of any kind and on any subject, expressing nuanced opinions and emotions, and active participation in any academic or professional environment”

tech 10 | Why Is it Important to Obtain C2 Certification?

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards diplomas that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH we offer you the test to obtain your level certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

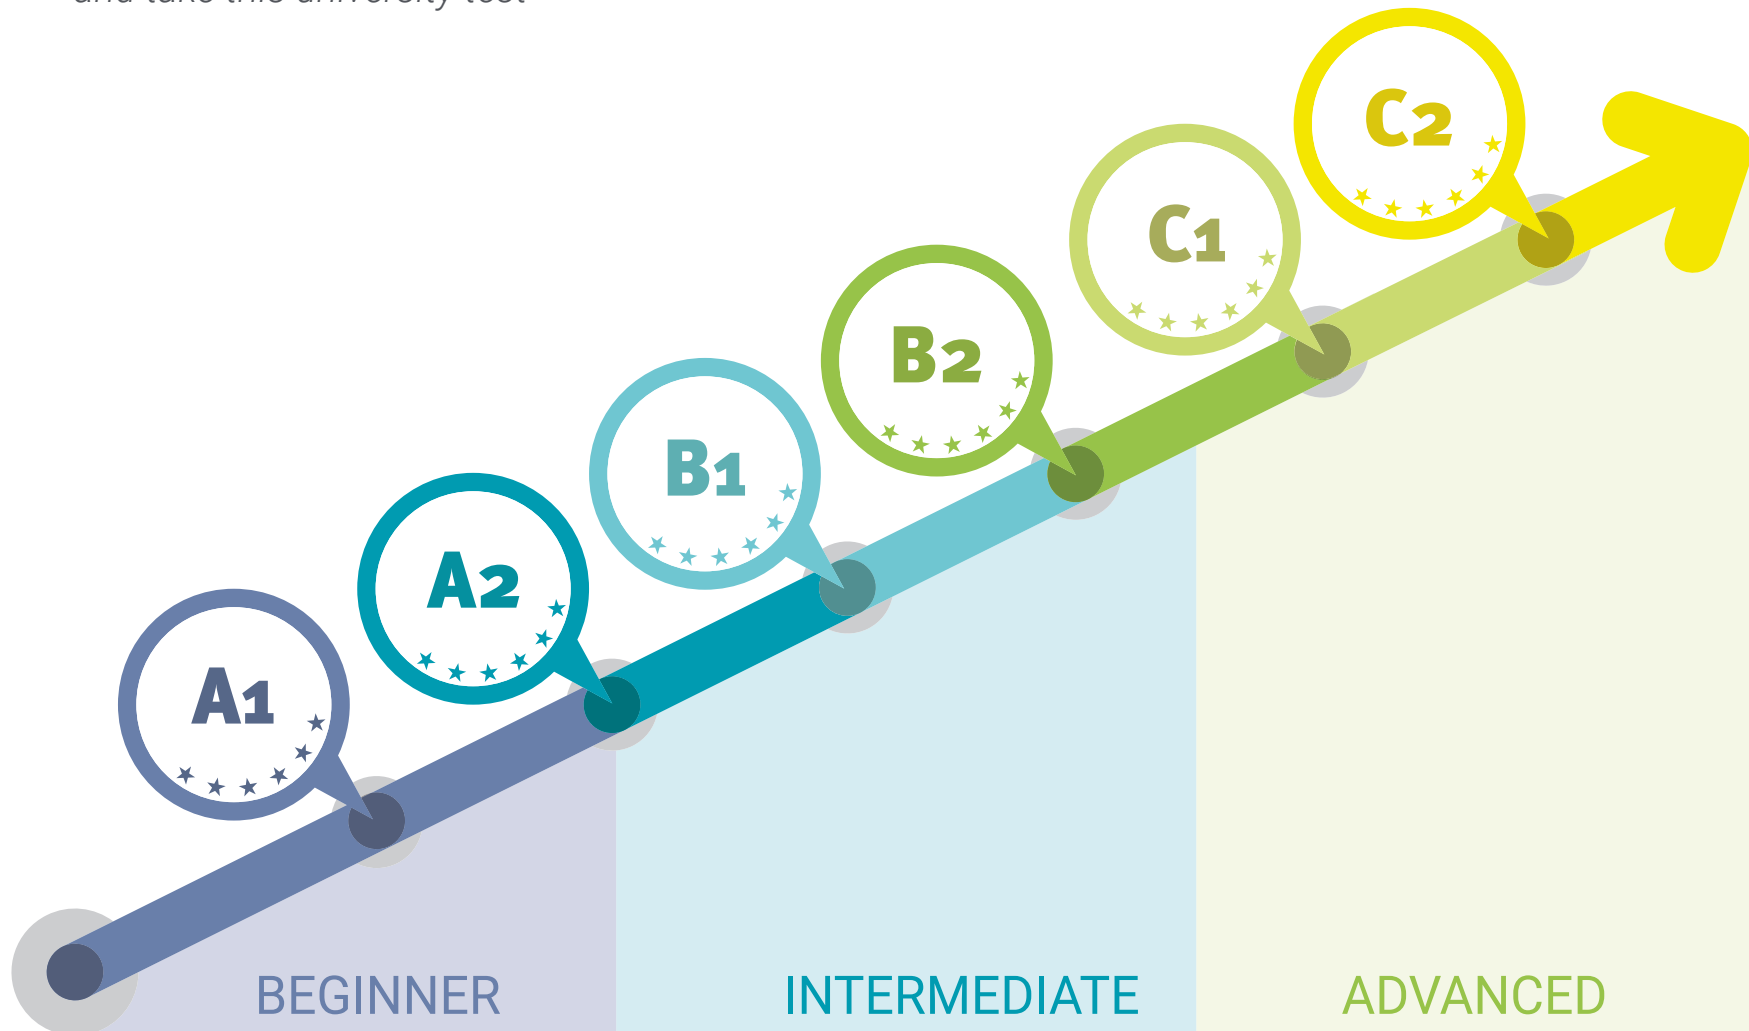

The CEFR is recognized and valid all over the world and will help you to access positions, selective processes or scholarships that require Italian Level C2.

This CEFR certificate is valid for life, which is a great advantage over other systems, which require constant updating of the level accreditation.

Stand out professionally by adding the CEFR Italian C2 to your resume. Don't wait any longer and take this university test"

Methodology and Criteria for Exam Evaluation

TECH has designed high-level language programs that are adapted to the circumstances of each student, so that they can study and improve at their own pace. “

TECH's examination methodology complies with the recommendations of the CEFR, guaranteeing the prestige and excellence of this university test"

Structure of the C2 level Italian exam

It consists of 4 parts:

Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing

The total duration of the exam is 185 to 255 minutes, with the first three parts taking place one after the other (1st Listening, 2nd Writing, 3rd Reading). There will be a minimum of 20 minutes of rest between the first three parts and the 4th part (Speaking), which can be done on the same day, or on a different day, with a maximum limit of 7 days after the other block has been completed.

Listening (Duration 35-45 minutes)

Listening consists of 4 exercises, each of which is based on an audio recording that can be a monologue or a conversation between 2 or more people. Exercises include: multiple response, sentence completion, completion of charts, graphs or diagrams, and short answer in one or two sentences. In this part of the exam, it should be noted that accents from any part of the world can be heard, which adds a substantial degree of difficulty.

Reading (Duration: 80-100 minutes)

It consists of 50 questions grouped in 5 sections. Several authentic texts are presented, totalling between 2500 and 3200 words, on which several questions are asked. The texts are excerpts from books, research articles, newspapers and scientific journals. The type of questions, as in the oral part, is highly varied: multiple answers, completing tables, graphs or diagrams, locating information in the text, indicating the writer's opinion, etc.

Writing (Duration: 70-90 minutes)

This part consists of two exercises, an essay of 250 to 400 words and another of 500 to 700 words. As a first draft a small report is usually requested on a piece of information provided to the examinee in any format (text, graph, table or diagram). Regarding the 250 word essay, a piece of information is usually presented very briefly (a couple of lines), followed by a statement about it, and then the candidate is asked to explain whether they agree or disagree with the statement, briefly stating the necessary arguments. The second exercise accounts for two thirds of the "Writing" grade and the first exercise for one third.

Speaking (Duration: 15-20 minutes)

In this last part, a conversation is held with an examiner, and it is designed to be as realistic as possible. It is divided into 3 subsections. In the first, the candidate responds to personal, family and/or everyday questions. In the second, the candidate discusses a specific topic indicated by the examiner.

In this case, the ability to produce a coherent and orderly discourse is valued. In the third and last one, both the examiner and the candidate have a conversation on a specific topic, where oral interaction and discussion skills are assessed. The entire speaking part is recorded for later review purposes.

Duration	Skills	Observations	Items	Tasks	Time	Instructions
