Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society.

Nowadays, students must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes their proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

tech 12 | Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certification?

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency.

Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and , are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH we offer you the only intensive program designed to prepare you to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

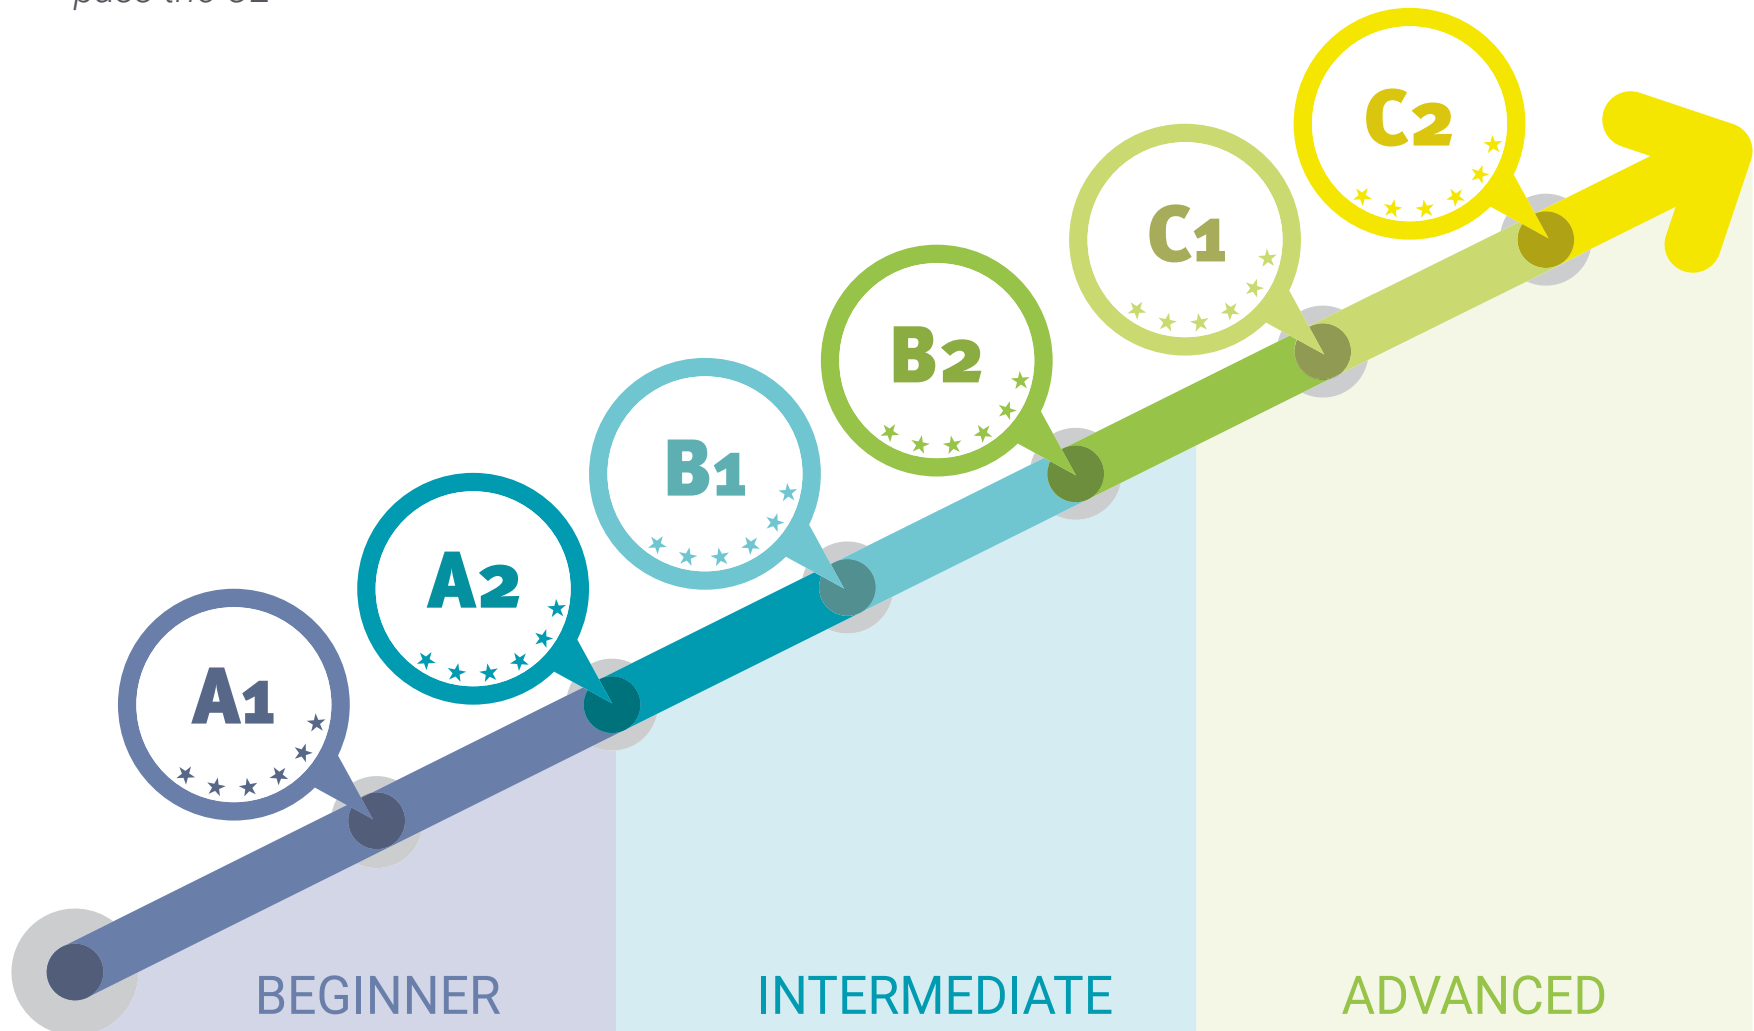

Finally learn to speak fluent English and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate is valid for life.

With this program you will have all the content and skills you need to pass the C2”

03

What Is Level C2?

Level C2 is part of the Proficient User Level, which is further divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Proficient User Levels (C1 and C2).

It is intended to characterize the degree of precision, appropriateness and ease of use in the language that typifies the speech of bright students. The descriptors graded here include: is able, by reasonably employing a wide range of modification mechanisms, to accurately convey subtle nuances of meaning; has a good command of idiomatic and colloquial expressions, and is aware of the connotative level of meaning; knows how to circumvent difficulties so discreetly that the interlocutor hardly notices.

Our Methodology

This intensive course of online conversation classes for the preparation of the English C2 level certificate is 100% based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, we use a method of oral proficiency practice in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the Framework, providing them with extensive preparation with the help of university teachers to pass the test.

Native teachers will provide, through online classes, the necessary skills to pass the C2 level of English quickly and efficiently”

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's English Level C2 oral proficiency preparation program offers you a method based on interaction and synchronous and direct communication between teacher and student to comprehensively prepare for the official oral level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the official test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Re-learning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

Re-learning Methodology

We prevent your motivation from waning and offer you the best learning environment.

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called “Neurocognitive context-dependent learning”, the different elements of our intensive English C2 level preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take his or her certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

The Professional Benefits of English

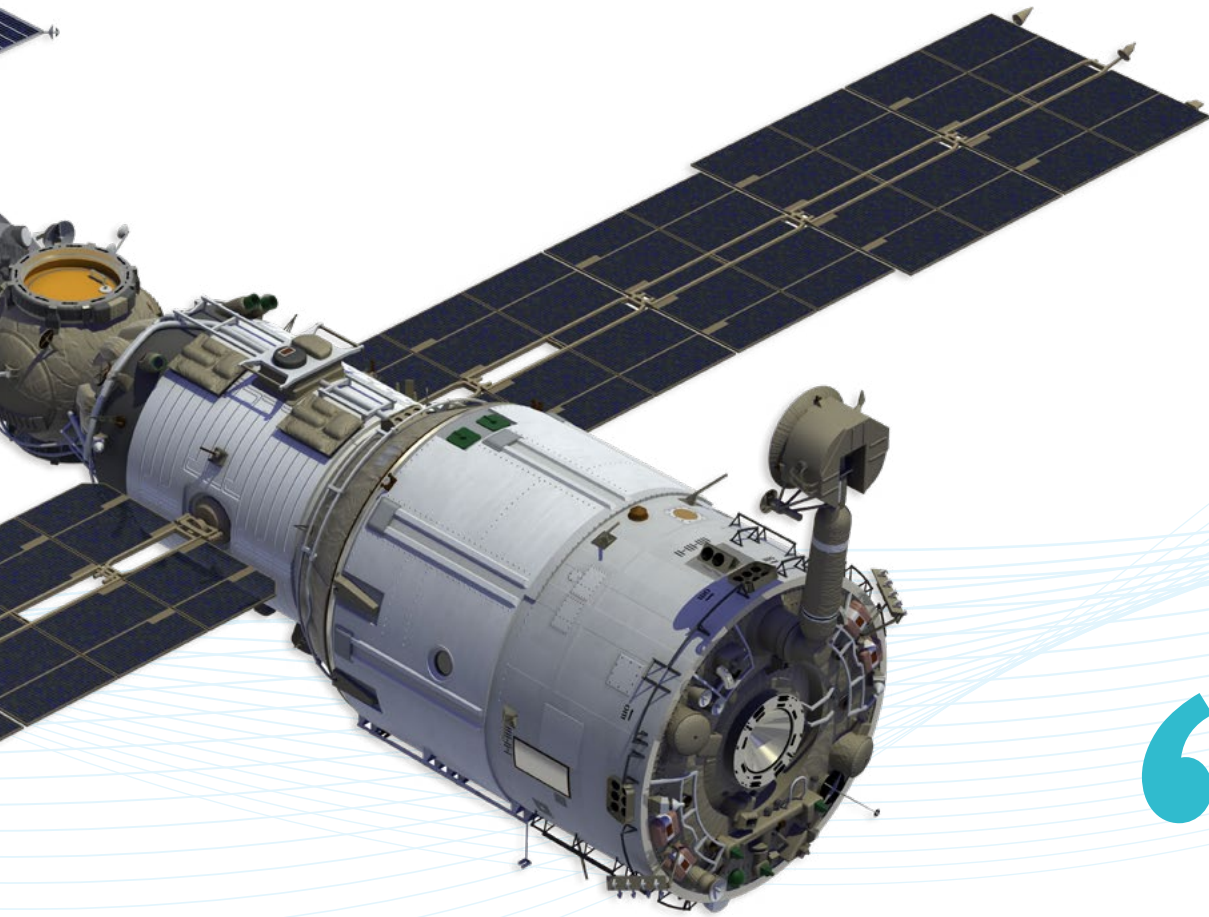

Today, English is the universal language, it is almost mandatory at the work level in all parts of the world, it is fundamental in any area of personal or professional life: it is the language used in the economic field, international trade, tourism, diplomacy, industry, etc. Everything is written, spoken and read in English nowadays; it has become the second preferred language in the world. In the globalized world in which we live, it is the tool that enables communication with people from all countries.

English is the language most widely used as a first or second language, the former by some 400 million people worldwide, while an estimated 2 billion people are learning it as a second language. With this, in less than a decade, English will be spoken by 3 billion people, almost half of the Earth's total population. In this sense, there is no doubt that it will become (if it is not already) a fundamental requirement for accessing a large part of job offers, scholarships, university careers, business, etc.

English will give us access to a better education and, therefore, the possibility of a better job. Our job opportunities will multiply as soon as we master the language. Whether in governmental areas or in multinational companies, regardless of the field of work, English will always bring advantages when it comes to promotion or access to another job, helping to improve the current employment situation of the person who masters it.

Another important reason to learn English is that we will be able to access a better education, without limiting ourselves to universities or training centers in our own country. It will also give us access to more current and complete information, we will learn about the latest advances and we will be able to access most scientific, academic and technological texts written in English. According to a study, more than 56% of Internet sites are published in English.

Today, English is the universal language. It is almost obligatory at the work level in all parts of the world, it is fundamental in any area of personal or professional life"

11
